ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW
Spearfish Partnership for Arts, Cycling and Equity (makeSPACE) is a non-profit organization that provides space in our community for all people to enjoy a just, healthy, and creative life. We aim to create a culture of active living via bicycle transportation, connection through creating, and building equitable institutions in the Spearfish community.

We do this by:
1. Advancing active living via safe human-powered transportation and recreation via establishing bicycling as a safe, viable transportation option, creating strong cycling cultures and conducting education and outreach.
2. Housing a makerspace and hosting arts events that emphasize educational programming for all ages and increasing community connectivity and participation as related to music, arts, and creative collaboration.
3. Hosting programs to broaden the perspectives of community members with the aim of creating a more inclusive and just community.
4. Providing a safe and empowering space for marginalized community members including groups such as, but in no way limited to: women, girls, LGBTQIA+ community, Black, Indigenous and people of color (BIPOC), people of differing abilities, youth, housing insecure, poor and working poor.

POSITION OVERVIEW
The Program and Outreach Director (POD) develops and implements makeSPACE programs, conducts outreach to the Northern Hills community, partners, media, and is in charge of growing the community base of the organization. The POD ensures that program objectives are met and coordinates activities of program committees and/or other groups. This position works closely with the Board of Directors to organize and oversee programs and fundraising. The POD oversees programming, budget, volunteers, and instructors. Creates specific objectives for makeSPACE programming and develops budgets/policies/procedures to support makeSPACE programming and outreach objectives. This position requires a deep knowledge of equity issues in the Spearfish community, must be a lover of arts, cycling, and community connections. This position reports to the Chair of the Board.
